JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court and counsel confer. Counsel present argument. Defendant addresses the Court. The Court places findings on the record and proceeds with sentencing. The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Gordon Alan Driver, is hereby committed on Counts 9 and 16 of the 16-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of ONE HUNDRED FIFTY-ONE (151) MONTHS. This term consists of 151 months on Count 9 of the 16-Count Indictment and 60 months on Count 16 of the 16-Count Indictment, all to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts 9 and 16 of the 16-Count Indictment, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntarily, not reenter the United States illegally. The defendant is not required to report to the Probation Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of Court-ordered supervision, the defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: United States Court House, 312 North Spring Street, Room 600, Los Angeles, California 90012.
5. The defendant shall comply fully with all present orders, or as modified in the future, that was issued upon a request by the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and/or the Commodities Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) with respect to limitations or restrictions on defendant engaging as a whole or partial owner employee or otherwise in any business involving investment programs, including commodities and stock market investments or other business involving solicitation of funds for investment purposes. The defendant shall advise the Probation Officer of any such business activities at least thirty (30) days before commencing them and shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists, and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant as directed by the Probation Officer.

6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
7. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation.
8. The defendant shall disclose all current and subsequently acquired post office box and storage facility locations used by the defendant to the Probation Officer within 48 hours of acquiring such space.
9. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the employment's site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.
10. The defendant shall disclose to all clients and prospective clients of any self-employment in securities, commodities, or investments, including software sales for those fields, that civil judgments have been imposed against him by the SEC and CFTC, and that he has been criminally convicted of making a false statement to the SEC and criminally convicted of wire fraud stemming from a scheme to defraud investors as to material matters.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on December 1, 2015. In the absence of such a designation, the Defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal's Office, to be determined by Magistrate Judge Carla M. Woehrle. See Dkt. 118.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $9,716,289.32 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the parties and Probation Office, which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the Clerk's Office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income but not less than $9,000, whichever is greater, shall be made during the period of supervised release and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the Court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

The Defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss all remaining counts.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
